Relief Meeting.

The citizens of Maysville are urgently asked to attend a meeting at the Courthouse this (Saturday) evening at half-past seven o'clock to devise means for the relief of the people made homeless and Edwards, Miss Anna Ellis, K. destitute by the fire on Hord's Hill Thursday. It is an occurrence that appeals strongly to public sympathy, and it is necessary that such sympathy should be manifested practically and immediately.

It has been considered best that a public meeting should be held in order to arrange that relief may be given systematically and equally to all the sufferers. The meeting should be well attended, and the donations as liberal as it is possible to make them. We hope every person in the city will make it a point to aid in such a worthy movement.

NEPTUNE Hall is to be improved.

SCARLET fever still prevails at Flemingsburg. Two new cases are reported.

The premium crop of tobacco in Fleming county was grown by Mr. Lewis T. King, and amounted to about eighteen thousand pounds.

THE ladies will be interested to know that A. R. Glascock & Co. have just received a full stock of Jerseys of all kinds. Many of them are of entirely new stlyes.

THE members of the Confederate Survivors' Association are requested to meet promptly at the hour named in the notice elsewhere, in order not to interfere with the relief meeting, which will also be held this evening.

Don't forget the relief meeting to-night. The people it is designed to aid lost not only their homes but all of their household property beside, and they are utterly destitute. The case is one worthy of the greatest liberality.

When symptoms of malaria appear in any form take Ayer's Ague Cure at once to prevent the development of the disease, and continue until health is restored, as it surely will be by the use of this remedy. A cure is warranted in every instance.

MIDDLETON-SOPER.

A Wedding of Well-known Kentuckians at Georgetown.

Commercial Gazette. One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place last Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, at the Christian Church, Georgetown, Ky, the Rev. R. M. Gano officiating. The bride was a charming Blue Grass Belle, Miss Lulu Soper, daughter of Mr. Robert Soper, of Georgetown, and the groom Mr. G. W. Middleton, a Kentuckian by birth, but for several years a resident of Denver, Colorado, where he is interested in mining and other operations. The church was beautifully decorated, the central aisle, down which the procession came, being barred by a floral gate, the silken ribbons of which two little pages in court costume, Masters Brackenridge Grigsby and Noah Burch unfastened to admit the bridal train. First, come the pages, then two groomsmen, Mr. H. C. Mullen, of Cin-cinnati, and Mr. W. G. Craig, of Georgetown; then the bridesmaids, Miss Anna Stockton, of Maysville, and Miss Laura Hamilton, of Georgetown, followed by the groom and his best man, Mr. W. R. Kinkead, of Denver, and last the bride and her first bridesmaid, Miss Lizzie Haggin, of Scott county. The grooms-man fied to the right, the bridesmaids to the left, leaving the happy pair side by side in the center of the chancel. The ceremony was brief, but impressive, and at its conclusion the bridal party and a few immediate friends adjourned to the residence of the bride's parents. where kisses and congratulations were bestowed, and a handsome collation was served. The bride wore an exquisite train of cream-tinted satin, over a petticoat of white brocaded plush. The bodice was trimmed with point lace and knots of orange blo-soms, and the same flowers formed a coroner for the bridal veil. Her ornaments were diamonds, the groom's gift, consisting of a superb crescent brooch and solitaires. The bridesmaids-three lovely girls-were dressed alike, in cream-tinted mull with garniture of Spanish lace and carried bouquets of resebuds. The bridal gifts were numerous and beautiful. Mr. and Mrs. Middleton are en route to Denver, their future home, and the good wishes of the entire community follow them. Among those present at the reception besides the bridal party already named were the unbers, Mossis, Milton Smith. tion of her eighth birthday.
